'WILD SLOPES' APALTA SLOPES, OUTER LIMIT BY MONTES,

CGM (Chile) 2019/2021 £48 bottle

(Carignan 50%, Grenache 30%, Mourvèdre 20%). From Montes' single vineyard 'La Finca Apalta', arguably one of the best sites for grape growing in Chile, this CGM blend demonstrates balance and freshness. Ruby red in colour, the nose offers clear notes of ripe red fruit & wild blackberries, accompanied by subtle vanilla, nutmeg, & sweet cinnamon touches from the oak ageing. The palate is refreshing, with good acidity & fruit expression & smooth, juicy tannins. Black & red fruit emerge here, with an elegant & persistent finish (14.5%). (Decanter 91)

GIANT STEPS YARRA VALLEY, LIGHT DRY RED (Australia) 2021 £50 bottle

An exciting new addition to the Yarra Valley range from 2017. A sensual blend of juicy red Pinot perfume is seasoned with the darker, peppery Syrah component. Sweet fruit, nuttiness & smoky clove spice characters, with a hint of reduction adding savoury complexity. Everything comes together in this fruity, juicy, light-bodied style with a subtle grip & elegant structure (13.5%).

HENSCHKE, 'KEYNETON EUPHONISUM' BAROSSA (Australia) 2018 £82 bottle

Shiraz Bordeaux blend with 66% Shiraz, 19% Cabernet Sauvignon, 10% Merlot & 5% Cabernet Franc - Deep crimson with garnet hues, this wine is enticing on the nose, with aromas of blackcurrant, blackberry and cassis, enveloped by herbal notes of sage and bay leaf that lead to subtle nuances of red fruits, black pepper, vanilla & cedar. The generous palate offers rich flavours of red & blackcurrant, dried herbs & black pepper, with great purity, balance & texture forming a delicious mouthfeel, while velvety tannins provide great length & complexity (14.5%). (SILVER - DWWA 2021 / SILVER - IWC 2021) (Decanter 93)

GROSSET, 'GAIA' CLARE VALLEY CABERNET SAUVIGNON/CABERNET

Franc (Australia) 2014/2018 £105 bottle

Planted at 570 metres, at the highest point of the Clare Valley, the Gaia vineyard is a rocky, isolated, wind-swept two hectare block close planted by Grosset in 1986. From Cabernet Sauvignon and Cabernet Franc. The 25th release of Grosset Gaia has restrained, brooding almost briary, aromatics with violet notes; fine structure with a firm backbone & pleasing supple blackcurrant and bramble flavours; well-integrated, gently gripping tannins that are long & ultra-dry (13.7%). (Decanter 94)

MITOLO, 'SERPICO', MCLAREN VALE, CABERNET SAUVIGNON

(Australia) 2018 £88 bottle

Made solely from Cabernet Sauvignon, it is made from lightly dried grapes in an 'Amarone' style. This drying gives a richer, fuller style, & a superb wine of great individuality. On the nose, there are intense aromas of rich blackberry & ripe plum complemented by notes of dark chocolate, vanilla & figs. It is a full-bodied wine with mouth-coating, fine grained tannins leading to a long, savoury finish (15.5%).

Reds

HENSCHKE, 'JOHANN'S GARDEN' GRENACHE/MATARO/SHIRAZ, Barossa (Australia) 2017 £78 bottle

Crimson with garnet hues. Bright, lifted aromas of redcurrant, rosehip and raspberry develop into concentrated baked plum pudding with spicy notes. The soft, luscious palate is complemented by complex flavours of spiced berry compote, raspberry and red liquorice. An elegant style with fine, velvety tannins and balanced acidity. (SLIVER DWWA 2021)(Decanter 91)

KOOMILYA, `JC BLOCK` MCLAREN VALE SHIRAZ (Australia) 2015 £110 bottle

A single block Shiraz from 80-year-old vines. The fruit which spent 14 days on skins with the hard pressings removed, was then transferred to stainless steel until early May. The wine was then moved to puncheons for malolactic fermentation and maturation & spending a total of 14 months in oak. This wine is an assault of many aromas and flavours that sweep together in one fluid motion, bound in the Koomilya signature of split red wood & mahogany. Silky tannins play across the back palate, soft yet powerful, enveloping and supple with deep spice & cassis flavours that surprise and delight. This wine is deep red in colour. Aromas of blackcurrant, cherry & raspberry are complemented by spicy notes from the oak. On the palate, it is soft, yet powerful, with silky tannins. A complex wine with great length & concentration on the finish at marks this out as a special wine. Outstanding. An Australian classic (14%). (96+ points. Gary Walsh, The Wine Front October 2021)

LEEU PASSANT, OLD VINES `BASSON` WELLINGTON CINSAULT (South Africa) 2018 £98 bottle

This vineyard always shows plenty of structure, power and focus and the 2018 vintage is considered one of the most structured yet. In its current youthful state, the aromatics are distinctively stony and mineral but also fabulously perfumed showing notes of potpourri, lavender, bramble berries, fynbos and Turkish delight. The palate is incredibly precise and foursquare with a polished structure and frame you just don't expect from such a delicately fragrant wine. The texture is dense and tightly packed, the wine concentrated and intense but also deceptively light on its feet revealing notes of cranberry, red cherry and wild strawberries on the finish all supported by the most powdery, silky tannins imaginable. A difficult wine to put accurately into words because it is so evocative on both an emotional level as well as on a sensorial level. Drink this wine from release and over the next 30+ years (13%). (Decanter 96)

Sweet

CHAMBERS ROSEWOOD, RUTHERGLEN MUSCAT (Australia) £7.50 (75ml) / £37 bottle (375ml)

The Rutherglen Muscat is tawny in colour with aromas of rose petals & dried fruit. These characters carry through to the palate, balanced with fresh acidity. The wine is unctuous & rich yet zesty & balanced - this is a superb wine to sip on its own, with cheese or with a wide variety of desserts. It is a reminder that Rutherglen produce some of the greatest sweet wines in the world. (18%).

CULLEN, MARGARET RIVER, LATE HARVEST CHENIN BLANC (Australia) £8.50 (75ml) / £40 bottle (375ml)

This wine is light gold in colour. On the nose are aromas of stewed apples, cooked mandarins, beurre noisette and sultanas. The palate opens up to flavours of apple pie, maple syrup, honey and caramel notes. This is a full-bodied, textured wine with great persistence of flavour and dashing acidity. (9.5%)
